Re: 26 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-607 (Supp. 2011)
Telephone Utilities Providing Retail Residential Local Exchange Services

Dear Mr. McDaniel:

In response to the letter dated August 8, 2011, New Edge Network, Inc. ("the Company") hereby provides the following information:

The Company is exclusively providing data broadband services in South Carolina at this time. The Company does not own or operate facilities within the state of South Carolina, nor does New Edge provide retail residential local exchange services, within the state of South Carolina. New Edge provides services to its end users through the purchase and resale of UNEs that are owned by other franchisees in South Carolina. New Edge exclusively provides interstate services to customers in South Carolina. As such, the Company does not come under the jurisdiction defined by the recently revised regulation 26 S.C Code Ann. Regs. 103-607 (Supp. 2011). If in the future, the company changes its business plan it will then fully comply with 26 S.C Code Ann. Regs. 103-607 (Supp. 2011).

Please accept this letter statement as the Company's compliance with South Carolina Office of Regulatory Staff new regulation.

Respectfully submitted,

Pia Pieters
Sr. External Affairs Specialist
